*Introducing our Honoree:
Sandy Bertha
Marriott Daughters Foundation*

Casa de Amparo is proud to recognize Sandy Bertha as our 2025 Crystal Ball Honoree. A dedicated philanthropist, passionate advocate, and longtime friend of Casa de Amparo, Sandy has spent decades supporting causes that uplift women and children locally and around the world.

Sandy and her husband, Albert, have lived in Encinitas for 28 years, where they raised their four children and now enjoy being grandparents to 10. She holds a degree in Art History from Brigham Young University (BYU), has served on several nonprofit boards, and is currently serving on the board of the Marriott Daughters Foundation, the JW & Alice S. Marriott Foundation, and advisory boards for BYU Business School and BYU's online affordable education program-Pathway Worldwide.

Her commitment to Casa de Amparo spans over a decade, and under her leadership, the Marriott Daughters Foundation has provided generous support for our programs, including major funding for the new Psychiatric Residential Treatment Facility.

A two-time world champion hydrofoiler, Sandy brings energy and heart to everything she does—from her global volunteer work to her recent year of missionary service in Ghana. We are grateful for her unwavering belief in Casa de Amparo's mission and her incredible impact on the lives of children healing from abuse and neglect.
